MOTOR SPARKS.

Tours between Richmond and Charlottesville this summer will be more popular than ever.

Spartanburg claims to have more paved streets than all the other cities of South Carolina combined.

The cost of maintaining an automobile in Richmond is about half as much as it is in New York. To keep a car in a garage in New York is $35 per month, and here it is only about $18.

Greenville, S. C., has joined the ranks of cities having automobile clubs.

There about 600 automobiles in Mexico, the majority of them of European makes.

A State Association has been formed in Kentucky by the clubs of Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro.

The Delaware Automobile Association has decided to undertake the task of marking the roads throughout the State.

Mr. B. A. Blenner, who just returned from New York, says that conditions there are very satisfactory, and that there is a large demand for good cars, particularly American built cars. A very large number of high-powered roadsters and touring cars are being bought for touring purposes, and quite a large number of limousines and landaulets are being used all the year round and are very luxurious and handsome. Mr. Blenner has just placed his order for a handsome limousine for Mr. C. A. Davenport, which will be delivered in about ten days.

The course selected by the Automobile Club of Barcelona, Spain, for its race for light cars, May 28th, is circular, embracing a number of towns, and will be covered nine times, giving a total distance of about 150 miles.

More than 125 sign posts have been erected in Hamilton county, O., by the Cincinnati Automobile Club, which now has 250 members.

Maps showing ninety-eight routes are included in a handbook recently issued by the touring committee of the Minnesota State Association.

A feature of the annual Gordingshow, London, was a section devoted to a display of recently-invented appliances to facilitate motoring.

William K. Vanderbilt has given assurance that he has no intention of withdrawing as a director of the American Automobile Association.

The Briarcliffe Trophy race, which takes place on April 24th, is the leading topic of conversation in New York. During the daylight practice hours these mornings the course is alive with cars. Most of the candidates are prudent and satisfy themselves with studying the circuit in touring cars, saving their racing machines until the course shall be put in less dangerous practice condition, and in some cases until the day of the race itself so as to take no chances of a breakdown through an accident. Some, though, have been unable to resist the temptation to drive in the contest, to their best, and laps under fifty seconds are claimed already. A fifty-second circuit means forty miles per hour. This is the estimates placed by experts of the probable rate that will be shown in the race. If the track be much improved by the gang of workmen now working on it, a forty-five-mile an hour average may be attained with the spur of the race itself.

V. P. I. BASEBALL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BLACKSBURG, VA., April 18.—The Techs' victory over the V. P. I. team on the home grounds Friday afternoon was a surprise to spectators and players. Four runs in the ninth inning made an exciting finish to what was the fastest and most interesting game played here in years, if ever.

Five to two in favor of the visitors when the home team went to bat for the last time, and there seemed in view of what had gone before, only one result possible. But three runs tied the score, the Techs had a line on the home team, and a run for home by Kenna finished the game in such wild excitement on the grandstand and bleachers as one only seen at the end of a college ball game when the playing throughout the game has been clean and devoid of kicking and the home team wins.

All interest now centres in the annual game with Virginia Military Institute at Roanoke on Monday. Pritchard, who was in the box for four innings Friday, will pitch, and should be a hot contender for the job in the Leigh contest was such that he can take his place without endangering the chances of success. Austin behind the bat played a great game Friday, as he has done in all the games, and both the Roanoke professor and the Techs' players are of the opinion that V. P. I.'s battery this season was equal to that of any college in the State. The line-up in the game with V. M. I. Monday will be the same as in the game with Leigh, as follows:

IS JEFF AFRAID?

BY JEFF THOMPSON.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Whatever the merits of Jack Johnson as a fighter, there can be no question of the ability of his manager, Sam Fitzpatrick, as a publicity promoter. As a matter of fact, he is strongly inclined to believe that Fitzpatrick is not for Fitzpatrick's really remarkable talents, Johnson would occupy about the same position in the pugilistic hall of fame as a man of color, Joe Jeannette and Sam Langford.

Fitzpatrick, however, is not hiding his light, or shall we say his "darky" under a bushel by any manner of means. On every occasion, possible or impossible, he goes into print, and always as the greatest fighting man that ever put on fighting shoes or donned skin-tight trunks, and the funniest part of it is that he makes it stick at least with a good many people.

There are some who actually believe that Jeffries is afraid to fight him, while more have the same idea as to the way Tommy Burns views Fitzpatrick. These people do not stop to figure just how Johnson has gotten such a reputation. As a matter of fact, in his career in the ring, he has never been beaten, and his record is a record that should be established, he has never figured better than a second rate fighter in the eyes of the public.

Jeffries is out of the question, his dollars to doughnuts he will be beaten.

To South America.

There is considerable interest in soccer at Cornell University this year because of the proposed trip to South America, and also because of the presence of the famous Victor Narayan, on the team. The trip to South America seems assured. Although the Cornell manager has been entered into by the Cornell manager, the Cornell manager from South America represent that the San Paulo de Futebol Liga is willing to give Cornell a 25,000 dollar check, and if the members of the Argentinian League which have challenged Cornell, make the same offer the trip is practically assured.

Superintendent Davis to Speak.

Superintendent of Public Charities George Davis has accepted an invitation to address the meeting of the Board of the Church next Sunday evening. His subject will be "God Save Our Commonwealth."

WAKE FOREST WINS WELL-PLAYED GAME

WAKE FOREST, N. C., April 18.—With tantalizing showers coming every few minutes and threatening weather, Wake Forest and Delaware State College crossed bats this afternoon, the latter losing in an interesting game by the score of 1 to 3. The Techs' pitcher, who was in the box for four innings Friday, will pitch, and should be a hot contender for the job in the Leigh contest was such that he can take his place without endangering the chances of success. RICHMOND COLLEGE TAKES GREAT GAME

Richmond College in an almost perfect exhibition of baseball put in a strong bid as one of the best college teams in the South yesterday by defeating the Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina, winners of the South Atlantic States championship last season, by the score of 2 to 1 in Petersburg. As there was a light drizzle at the beginning of the game, by agreement only five innings were played.

In spite of the unfavorable playing conditions the fielding was quick and snappy, and greatly enjoyed by the few spectators.

Counsel's and Farmer's hitting and Counsel's beautiful one-hand catch of a long fly to centre were the features for A. and M., while Sheppard's line drive past second and Ezekiel's timely hit were Richmond's good plays.

D. Wright pitched a splendid game, having almost perfect control, and was a puzzle to A. and M. The team behind him was almost perfect, considering the wet condition of the ground. Harris pitched a good game, but seemed to be a little wild. His

BURNS KNOCKS OUT AFRICAN IN PARIS

PARIS, April 18.—Tommy Burns, the American heavyweight pugilist, knocked out "Jawey" Smith, the South African boxer, here to-night in the fifth round of what was scheduled to be a ten-round bout.

The meeting of Burns and Smith was the biggest affair of the kind ever held in Paris. It was witnessed by several heavy body blows in the first and second rounds.

The American showed much more skill than his opponent, and after playing light with him, felled Smith with a left-hander in the third round. In the fourth round Smith was knocked down twice and managed to get on his feet before the count ended. In the fifth he rallied gamely, after taking several punishment, but he could not stand the pace of the agile Burns, who ended the one-sided match with a terrific right to the jaw, which put Smith to rest.

Almon's name was caused at the end of the third round when a photograph apparatus exploded, scattering glass and wires everywhere. Scores of the spectators leaped to their feet, but they were prevailed upon to remain in their places, and the fire was speedily extinguished.

VIRGINIA DROPS FIRST PENN. GAME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 18.—Pennsylvania State College captured the first game played on its Southern trip, defeating Virginia to-day, 9 to 5. Considering the condition of the grounds, both teams put up a good article of ball in the field, two of Virginia's errors being excusable. In the first inning Morrison lost a fine opportunity
